

05/12/2022 Call Committee Update

This week the Synod released its first slate of candidates to the Pastoral Call Committee. The committee will meet on Monday night to set up interview times with the prospective candidates over the next few weeks. The Synod has reminded the committee that the interview process remains completely confidential, so committee members are unable to provide specifics on the candidates.

Though we are not limited to only considering those on the synod's slate, the interim agreement with Pastor Mark provides that he cannot be a candidate for the permanent call.
