

07/03/2022 Call Committee Update

The Call Committee is currently in its second interview round. Second-round interview questions have been individualized based on what we learned from the first interview round.

We are always willing to answer questions from the congregation, and one question asked this past week concerned the interview process: Is there any reason why the specific interview questions are not published in the Call Committee communications on the KIOSK?

The committee did consider congregational feedback that had been received when we crafted the initial list of questions, and we will continue to consider congregational feedback moving forward. At this stage, interview questions are tailored based in part upon the candidate's first-round interview and upon the candidate's particular situation. Sharing those questions outside the committee would risk compromising the confidentiality of a candidate's identity, and it is the committee's duty to the candidate not to compromise that information.

As always, if you have any further questions, feel free to reach out to a Call Committee member.
